About the Office for National Statistics

The Office for National Statistics (ONS) is the government agency responsible for compiling, analysing and disseminating many of the United Kingdom's economic, social and demographic statistics, including the retail price index, trade figures and labour market data, as well as the periodic census of the population and health statistics. The Director of ONS is also the National Statistician and the Registrar General for England and Wales, and the agency that administers the statutory registration of births, marriages and deaths there.

A National Statistics publication

Official statistics bearing the National Statistics logo are produced to high professional standards set out in the National Statistics Code of Practice. They undergo regular quality assurance reviews to ensure that they meet customer needs. They are produced free from any political interference.

MONTHLY REVIEW OF EXTERNAL TRADE STATISTICS

NOVEMBER 2001

The Monthly Review of External Trade Statistics is intended to supplement the information contained in the monthly National Statistics First Release on UK trade. This issue of the Monthly Review is consistent with the figures shown in the First Release of 23 January 2002.

NOTES

1. The statistics of trade in goods compiled by the Office for National Statistics (ONS) are derived principally from data provided by the Tariff and Statistical Office of HM Customs & Excise (TSO).

Overseas Trade Statistics compiled by TSO

2. Since 1993 statistics of the United Kingdom's overseas trade in goods comprise: (i) statistics of UK imports from and exports to countries outside the EU which have been compiled from declarations made to HM Customs & Excise; and (ii) statistics of UK arrivals (imports) from and dispatches (exports) to other Member States of the EU compiled from Intrastat returns sent to the TSO. The Intrastat system is linked to Value Added Tax (VAT) and has applied since 1993 in all EU member states. Prior to 1993 statistics of UK trade with all countries were compiled from declarations made to HM Customs & Excise.

3. For statistical purposes the UK adopts the valuation bases recommended in the International Merchandise Trade Statistics Concepts & Definitions published by the United Nations namely: the valuation of exports (dispatches) is on a free on board (fob) basis, ie the cost of goods to the purchaser abroad, and the valuation of imports (arrivals) is on a cost, insurance and freight (cif) basis including all expenses in moving the goods to the point of entry into the UK (but excluding any duty or tax chargeable in the UK).

Balance of Payments Statistics compiled by ONS

4. In order to conform to the IMF balance of payments (BOP) definition, the value of imports required is the value of goods at the point of export (ie the Customs border of the exporting country) rather than the value of goods as they arrive in the UK. The freight and insurance costs of transporting the goods to the UK needs to be deducted from the values recorded by the TSO.

5. In addition the ONS has to make various other adjustments to include transactions which are not reported to TSO and to exclude transactions reported to TSO but where there is no change of ownership.

6. Table 2.4 in the annual National Statistics publication United Kingdom Balance of Payments summarises the transition from trade in goods statistics on an Overseas Trade Statistics (OTS) basis (compiled by the TSO) to a BOP basis (compiled by the ONS) for each of the last 11 years.

Classifications and definitions

7. The Overseas Trade Statistics of the UK are compiled under the headings of the Standard International Trade Classification (SITC, Rev.3) of the United Nations. One exception is defence equipment which in the UK is included in Section 9 rather than Section 8. In addition the ONS uses an alternative presentation within finished manufactures to classify such goods into passenger motor cars, other consumer goods, intermediate goods and capital goods. This presentation is derived from the Classification by Broad Economic Categories defined in terms of SITC, Rev3 published in 1986 by the United Nations.

8. Trade in gold is reported to the TSO but is excluded from the statistics of total exports and imports published in the Overseas Trade Statistics. However, trade in ores and concentrates and finished manufactures of gold (e.g. jewellery) are included in total exports and imports.

9. In this publication 'oil' means petroleum and petroleum products (SITC Division 33). The tonnages of crude oil exported and imported cannot be directly compared with those originating from the Department of Trade and Industry which are compiled from data provided direct from oil companies and published in Monthly Digest of Statistics and Energy Trends. The average value per tonne may reflect not only changes in price but also changes in the commodity mix - this is particularly true for imports.

10. In the context of the short-term statistics, trade in ships (including drilling or production platforms), aircraft, precious stones and silver can be regarded as erratic because of the large value of individual shipments. Precious stones are classified to SITC Division 66, silver to Division 68 and the other erratic items to Division 79.

Seasonal Adjustment

11. The monthly trade in goods figures published by National Statistics are on a seasonally adjusted basis. Series for the value of trade in goods and the volume indices are seasonally adjusted independently. Research suggests little evidence of seasonality in the price indices. The seasonally adjusted series for total trade in goods are derived by summing or weighting together major commodity components.

12. Full seasonal adjustment runs are carried out each month using the latest data to estimate the seasonal factors for the current month and re-estimate those for the immediately-preceding month. It follows that there will be some revision to the previous month's estimates when the current month's are published. In common with other parts of National Statistics the seasonal adjustment package used is X11ARIMA developed by Stats Canada.

Price and Volume Indices

13. The indicators of price movement ("deflators") for individual commodities used in the calculation of price and volume indices are based where possible on export price indices (EPIs) and import price indices (IPIs) directly collected by ONS from UK manufacturers. For some commodities price movements are derived from the TSO based data, whilst for certain commodities that are traded on World markets price information on these markets is used for both imports and exports.

Revisions

14. Most revisions to the trade in goods figures are small in relation to the variability of the series. The estimates for each month for trade in goods with non-EU countries are revised when the following month's figures are first published, to take in adjustments to the OTS data and revisions to the previous month's seasonal factors. Because of the Intrastat system there is a need to revise the EU estimates over a longer period of time. However, the National Statistics policy is to minimise as far as is sensible the frequency with which revisions are published.

Rounding

15. Figures on a Balance of Payments basis are adjusted to ensure arithmetical consistency, in line with conventions used in the National Accounts. Index numbers are rounded to the nearest whole number or (for the highest-level aggregates) to one place of decimals.

Presentation

16. With the exception of the international comparisons shown in table G4, all trade in goods information in this publication is consistent with the Balance of Payments (BOP), although the conversion of the data from an OTS basis is less certain at the lower levels of aggregation. Tables containing this more detailed information have been annotated 'BOP-consistent basis', whereas the tables showing the more soundly based data have been annotated 'BOP basis'.

17. Detailed OTS figures appear in various publications issued by the Stationery Office on behalf of HM Customs & Excise. These publications provide detailed commodity level data as well as breakdowns by country and area. Information on trade in goods with both EU and non-EU countries can also be obtained through marketing agents appointed by HM Customs and Excise.

Further information

18. A paper entitled Statistics on Trade in Goods (GSS Methodological Series No. 10) gives comprehensive explanations of the bases on which trade in goods statistics are compiled.
